

Technical Official PATHWAY

Conducted by:

CL 1

Community Level 1 (CLI) is a program that provide the fundamental understanding of the Sport, History and Basic Roles and Responsibilities of becoming a technical official by TAS. Participant will be introduce the International Triathlon Union (ITU) Competition Rules and tasked to officiate in national multi-sport events by undertaking assistant technical official roles.

CL 2

Community Level 2 (CL2) is a program that provide the advance level of technical training for Triathlon by TAS. Participant tasked to officiate in national multi-sport events by undertaking assistant technical delegate or chief roles. This program specialized in applying ITU competition rules and equipped technical official with technical skills and knowledge in order to prepare them for overseas ITU races. Qualified event organizer maybe exempted from CLI course and enter this course, subject to TAS Technical Committee (TC) approval.

NTO

ITU Level 1 National Technical Official (NTO) is a ITU accredited program that provide the national level of technical training for Triathlon. Participant tasked to officiate in national multi-sport events by undertaking technical delegate or chief roles. This program specialized in mastering ITU competition rules and equipped technical official with extensive technical skills and knowledge in order to prepare them for overseas races. Officials are eligible to officiate in ITU/ASTC sanctioned race in overseas base on Self-Fund Basis subject to TC approval. This allow an opportunity for them to gain exposure and exchange experience with other TOs from all over the world.

CTO

ITU Level 2 Continental Technical Official (CTO) is a program that provide the continental level of technical training for Triathlon by ITU. NTO who fulfilled criteria set by ITU will be eligible for the course. Undertaking mentor roles, CTOs tasked to supervise national multi-sport events, providing guidance and evaluate the performance of the technical delegate. This program specialized in mastering ITU EOM and competition rules. Technical official may also be assigned by overseas ITU races as a technical delegate or official for major games in the world.

Eligible for Facilitator Course
Self Fund Technical Official Scheme

ITO

ITU Level 3 International Technical Official (ITO) is a program that provide the highest level of technical training for Triathlon by ITU. CTO who fulfilled criteria set by ITU will be eligible for the course on selection basis. Undertaking advisory roles, ITOs tasked to advice on national multi-sport events and providing guidance in the overall aspect of the race. This program specialized in mastering ITU EOM and competition rules. Technical official may also be assigned by overseas ITU races as a technical delegate, team leader or official for major games in the world.

Conducted by:

